

BBVA's Board of Directors to meet in Mexico City

The Board of Directors of BBVA will meet next Wednesday, July 8 in Mexico City, as part of its yearly schedule of meetings.

Among other matters, the Board expects to consider a proposal for payment of the first interim dividend for 2009, which would be distributed as from July 10, 2009.

In addition, coinciding with the BBVA Board of Directors meeting, the BBVA Bancomer Regional Directors will hold their annual encounter in Mexico City on July 7.

This year's BBVA Board of Directors meeting is one more in a series of meetings held each year in Mexico City as a reflection of the value and importance the Group places on its operations in that country. BBVA Bancomer is the leading financial entity in Mexico, controlling approximately one-third of the market.
